(c) what were the findings/conclusions of such investigation/inquiry in case of each such officer; and

(d) if no investigation/inquiry has been held and no findings were arrived at against any of such officers, then on what basis such officers have been discharged from the service?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI ANAND SHARMA): (a) to (d) An Indian Foreign Service Probationer was discharged from service in 2002, in accordance with the terms of his appointment, with the approval of the competent authority. He challenged the discharge order in the Central Administrative Tribunal, which dismissed his application, whereupon he has filed an appeal in the Hon'ble Delhi High Court. The matter is currently sub-judice with the Hon'ble Court.

Exchanging Lists of Nuclear Installation

2755. SHRIMATI SUKHBUNS KAUR:
SHRI KALRAJ MISHRA:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether India and Pakistan exchanged lists of their nuclear installations in January, 2006 under agreement that prohibits Islamabad and New Delhi for attacking each other nuclear facilities, while cross border terrorism from Pakistan continues unabated;

(b) if so, in what manner it would help India closing ranks with Pakistan, and strengthening mutual ties between two countries; and

(c) whether any steps have been taken to ente into similar under standings with other neighbouring countries, if so, the details in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF EXTERNAL AFFAIRS (SHRI E. AHAMMED): (a) and (b) For the fifteenth consecutive year, India and Pakistan, through diplomatic channels, simultaneously at New Delhi and Islamabad, exchanged lists of nuclear installations and facilities covered under the Agreement on the Prohibition of Attacks Against Nuclear installations and Facilities between India and Pakistan on 1 January 2006. This Agreement was signed on December 31, 1988 and entered into force on January 27, 1991. Under the Agreement, the two countries are to inform each other on January 1 of each calendar year of the nuclear installations and facilities to be covered by the Agreement. The Agreement is an important confidence-building measure between India and Pakistan.
